

NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Business Travel Policy

Document ID: HR-TRV-005

Version: 2.0

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Policy Owner: Human Resources & Finance Department

Classification: Internal Use Only

Table of Contents

1. Purpose
 2. Scope
 3. Travel Eligibility
 4. Travel Authorization
 5. Booking Guidelines
 6. Transportation Policy
 7. Accommodation Policy
 8. Meals and Daily Allowance
 9. Local Transportation
 10. Expense Reimbursement
 11. International Travel
 12. Employee Responsibilities
 13. Emergency Procedures
 14. Policy Violations
 15. Frequently Asked Questions
 16. Revision History
-

1. Purpose

NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd. recognizes that business travel is sometimes necessary to support customer engagements, project execution, training, conferences, recruitment, and strategic business initiatives.

This policy establishes standardized procedures for planning, approving, conducting, and reimbursing official business travel while ensuring cost efficiency, employee safety, and compliance with company financial controls.

2. Scope

This policy applies to:

- Full-time employees
- Probationary employees
- Confirmed employees

It also applies to travel undertaken for:

- Customer meetings
- Client implementation projects
- Business conferences
- Technical training
- Recruitment activities
- Internal company meetings
- Vendor meetings
- Audit and compliance activities

The policy does not apply to personal travel.

3. Travel Eligibility

Employees may travel only when there is a legitimate business requirement.

Examples include:

- Customer implementation
- Product demonstrations
- Production incident support
- Leadership meetings
- Training programs
- Industry conferences
- Internal audits

Business travel should not be used when meetings can reasonably be conducted using approved virtual collaboration tools.

4. Travel Authorization

Every business trip requires prior approval.

Domestic Travel

Approval required from:

1. Reporting Manager
2. Department Head

International Travel

Approval required from:

1. Reporting Manager
2. Department Head
3. Finance Department
4. Human Resources
5. Executive Leadership (when applicable)

Travel bookings must not be made before receiving the required approvals.

Employees should submit travel requests at least:

Travel Type Minimum Notice

Domestic 5 working days

International 20 working days

Emergency travel may be approved with shorter notice when justified.

5. Booking Guidelines

All business travel should be booked through the company's authorized travel management partner or approved corporate booking portal.

Employees should:

- Select the most economical reasonable option.
- Book tickets as early as possible.
- Avoid unnecessary itinerary changes.
- Use negotiated corporate rates whenever available.

Personal reward points earned during official travel may be retained by the employee unless prohibited by law or customer agreements.

6. Transportation Policy

Air Travel

Employee Level	Class
Associate to Manager	Economy Class

Senior Manager and Above Business Class (for flights exceeding 6 hours)

Business Class for shorter flights requires Executive Leadership approval.

Rail Travel

Employees should use:

- AC Chair Car
- AC 2-Tier
- AC First Class

based on route availability and journey duration.

Personal Vehicle

Employees may use personal vehicles for official travel with prior approval.

Mileage reimbursement is provided at:

₹12 per kilometer

subject to submission of travel details.

7. Accommodation Policy

Hotels should be booked through approved travel partners whenever possible.

Maximum nightly reimbursement:

Employee Level	Maximum Amount
Associate	₹6,000
Senior Associate	₹7,500
Lead	₹9,000
Manager	₹12,000

Employee Level Maximum Amount

Director and Above ₹18,000

Employees should choose safe and business-appropriate accommodation.

Additional hotel expenses such as minibar purchases, entertainment, or spa services are considered personal expenses and are not reimbursable.

8. Meals and Daily Allowance

Employees are eligible for meal reimbursement during approved business travel.

Maximum daily meal allowance:

Travel Type Daily Limit

Domestic ₹2,000

International USD 75

Alcoholic beverages are not reimbursable unless specifically approved as part of an official customer event.

Receipts are required for all meal reimbursements exceeding ₹500.

9. Local Transportation

Approved local transportation includes:

- Metro
- Taxi
- Ride-sharing services
- Airport shuttle
- Rental vehicles (when approved)

Employees should use economical transportation whenever practical.

Luxury transportation options require prior approval.

Parking fees, toll charges, and airport transfers incurred during official travel are reimbursable with supporting receipts.

10. Expense Reimbursement

Employees should submit travel expense claims through the Employee Self-Service (ESS) Portal.

Claims must include:

- Original invoices
- Boarding passes (for air travel)
- Hotel invoices
- Taxi receipts
- Meal receipts where required
- Conference registration receipts

Expense claims should be submitted within 15 calendar days after completion of travel.

Reimbursements are generally processed within 10 business days after claim approval.

Incomplete claims may delay reimbursement.

11. International Travel

Employees travelling internationally must ensure they have:

- Valid passport
- Appropriate visa
- Travel insurance
- Required vaccinations (where applicable)
- Customer-required security training
- Emergency contact information

Foreign currency advances may be approved by the Finance Department.

Employees are expected to comply with all immigration and customs regulations of the destination country.

12. Employee Responsibilities

Employees travelling on behalf of NovaTech must:

- Represent the company professionally.
- Follow local laws and regulations.
- Protect company equipment.
- Safeguard confidential information.
- Follow customer security requirements.
- Submit expenses accurately.

- Notify their manager of itinerary changes.

Employees should immediately report:

- Lost company equipment.
- Passport loss.
- Medical emergencies.
- Security incidents.
- Travel disruptions affecting business commitments.

13. Emergency Procedures

In the event of an emergency while travelling:

1. Ensure personal safety.
2. Contact local emergency services if required.
3. Inform your reporting manager.
4. Contact Human Resources.
5. Contact the Corporate Security Team if a security incident occurs.

Emergency contact numbers are available through the Employee Self-Service Portal and the corporate travel application.

14. Policy Violations

Examples of policy violations include:

- Booking unauthorized premium travel.
- Submitting false expense claims.
- Using company travel funds for personal travel.
- Providing altered invoices.
- Claiming duplicate reimbursements.
- Misrepresenting business purpose.

Confirmed violations may result in:

- Rejection of reimbursement claims.
- Written warning.
- Recovery of improperly claimed expenses.
- Disciplinary action.

- Termination of employment in cases involving fraud.
-

15. Frequently Asked Questions

Q1. Who must approve domestic business travel?

Domestic travel requires approval from the Reporting Manager and Department Head before bookings are made.

Q2. Can I book my own flights?

Employees should use the company's approved travel management partner or authorized booking portal unless an exception has been approved.

Q3. What is the daily meal reimbursement limit for domestic travel?

The maximum daily meal allowance for domestic business travel is ₹2,000.

Q4. When should I submit my travel expense claim?

Expense claims should be submitted within 15 calendar days after completion of the business trip.

Q5. Can I claim minibar expenses?

No.

Minibar purchases, entertainment, and personal hotel expenses are not reimbursable.

Q6. What mileage reimbursement is provided for using a personal vehicle?

Approved use of a personal vehicle for business travel is reimbursed at ₹12 per kilometer.

Q7. Is travel insurance mandatory for international travel?

Yes.

Employees undertaking international business travel must have approved travel insurance before departure.

Q8. What happens if I submit a false expense claim?

Submitting fraudulent or altered expense claims is considered a serious policy violation and may result in disciplinary action, recovery of funds, and termination of employment.

Revision History

Version	Date	Description
1.0	January 2024	Initial Release
1.5	August 2025	Updated Hotel Reimbursement Limits
2.0	January 2026	Added International Travel and Emergency Procedures